

Dr. Takashi Kurumiya
President, MSF Japan

Dr. Takashi Kurumiya is a gastrointestinal surgeon. After graduating from Mie University School of Medicine in April 1984, he joined the First Department of Surgery of Mie University, and worked in the surgical department at regional core hospitals in Mie Prefecture, serving as the chief of the operating room at Saiseikai Matsusaka General Hospital. Following that, he worked as Director of the Aichi Hepatobiliary and Pancreatic Hospital, Director of the Operating Room at Kuwana East Medical Center, and Director of the Emergency Department at Mie-Kita Medical Center Inabe General Hospital. He is currently in charge of the emergency department at Nagai Hospital in Tsu, Mie Prefecture. Dr. Kurumiya's career in MSF began in 2004. He has since served 15 surgical field assignments. He was elected to the MSF Japan board in 2006 through 2012 and in 2017. He co-served as vice president from 2018 to 2020 before being elected president of MSF Japan in March 2020.

久留宮 隆

国境なき医師団(MSF)日本 会長 外科医

MSF 日本会長、消化器外科の専門医。愛知県立旭丘高等学校卒業。1984年、三重大学医学部を卒業後、同年4月より三重大学医学部第一外科入局。三重県を中心に地域中核病院での外科に勤務し、済生会松阪総合病院にて手術室部長を務めるなどした。その後、あいち肝胆膵ホスピタル診療部長、地方独立行政法人桑名東医療センター手術室部長、三重北医療センターいなべ総合病院救急総合診療部長を歴任し、現在、三重県津市の永井病院において救急を担当。2004年よりMSFの活動に参加。2006年から2012年、および2017年からMSF日本理事、2018年よりMSF日本副会長を務める。2020年3月より現職。