

Yasuaki Yoneyama
Special Representative, Japan, World Bank

Yasuaki Yoneyama is the Special Representative of the World Bank Group (WBG) in Japan. He leads the work of the WBG in further developing its relationship with the second largest shareholder, Japan.

Yasuaki joined WBG from the Ministry of Finance of Japan, where he accumulated experiences across multidisciplinary areas including budget, debt management, development, and climate finance issues since 1995. He also had stints at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (Middle East and Africa Bureau), African Development Bank (Executive Director), and International Monetary Fund (Asia and Pacific Department). He graduated from the University of Tokyo and the French ENA (École nationale d'administration).

米山泰揚
世界銀行駐日特別代表

2021年8月より現職。

1995年に大蔵省(当時)に入省以来、国内関係(予算編成、債務管理等)・国際関係(国際開発金融機関、気候変動対策資金、二国間 ODA 等)、各方面の様々な業務に従事。

このほか、外務省(中東アフリカ局)、アフリカ開発銀行(理事)、国際通貨基金(アジア太平洋局)にも在籍。東京大学法学部・フランス国立行政学院(ENA)卒業。